Self-Defenses (Ho-sun-sol)

A grabs B's hair on top from forward

B stamps A on the foot, puts his/her palms on top of A's hand, which is holding B's hair, and pushes down against his/her own head, as hard as possible, while going down in an upright position. This action will cause a great deal of pain in A's finger joints and wrist, and makes him/her to give up.

A grabs B's hair on top from behind

B stamps A on the foot, puts his/her both palms on top of A's hand, which is holding B's hair, and pushes down against hi/her own head, as hard as possible, while going down and swinging to a side. Then, as A opens his hand, as a result of the pain, B grabs A's hand and twists it, as he/she swings to a side, to gain control.

A grabs B's ponytail from behind

B stamps A on the foot, turns to A, reducing distance, hitting A in solar plexus by elbow, following with a knee attack to the same point, and finishing by throwing A to the ground, face down.
